NOTES FROM THE MARCH MEETING

The March meeting of the Association was held on March 12 at the Altamont Fire House. The meeting was called to order at 7:30 PM by President Robert White. The Pledge of Allegiance was said and Chaplain Jonathan Hough gave the opening Prayer. President White welcomed everyone to Altamont and pointed out the Fire exits. Communications were read and one bill was approved for payment. Committee reports were received from Newsletter, Muster, Firefighter of the year, Burn Fund, nominating and Annual Dinner. Frank Papa of Voorheesville gave an update on their plans for a convention in 2027. They asked for permission to use the county logo on some of the items to be sold. This was approved In Old Business Fred Pettingell will serve as delegate to both Hudson Valley and Fasnys and Butch Recchia will serve as alternate. In New Business The membership voted to take a Half Page ad in the Hudson Valley Convention Journal in June and also voted and approved being a Hole Sponser at the Hudson Valley Golf Tournament. Second Vice President Matt Wilcenski brought up about getting shirts made up for the Association. All felt this was a good idea. We will need to have some type of Logo made up for the shirts. Secretary Webb will see if he can find the Logo that was used to make up window decals when the Association first started. Fred Pettingell presented the Treasurers report and Clayton Ash presented the Financial Secretary's report. Chuck Feldmann. President of the Albany County Fire Police Association announced that their next meeting will be on March 27 at Fort Hunter and the Biennial Fire Police Seminar is Oct 4 at Fuller Road. Hudson Valley President Bob Schrader spoke about the upcoming Convention and Yale Frank announced that the Annual Hudson Valley Day at the Firefighters home in Hudson will be on Sept 28. Past president Burt Frederick is now at Shaker Run Senior Adult Care Center and is hoping to get into the Firefighters Home in Hudson. There were 15 Officers, members and guests present and 10 companies represented at the meeting.
